Lenk joins Soffey Realty

Walter Lenk, a Priscilla Circle resident, has joined the staff of Cape Cod's Dick Soffey Realty in Chatham.

A graduate of Bates College, Lewiston, Maine, Lenk also has a master's degree in social work from Boston University.

He recently retired with almost 30 years government service as a clinical social worker with the Veterans Administration in Worcester.

With additional experience in general insurance and life insurance sales, Lenk says he looks forward to his new career in real esatate on the Cape.

He will divide his time between Chatham and Wellesley, where he will function as Soffey's Greater Boston representative.
